TRAFFIC POLICE ADVISORY ON JAYWALKING IN THE VICINITY OF BENDEMEER PRIMARY SCHOOL

Traffic Police (TP) has received feedback on parents and students jaywalking along Bendemeer Road and Serangoon Road (in the vicinity of Bendemeer Primary School).

2 Jaywalking is a serious offence which endangers the safety of the offender as well as other road users. The act of jaywalking may also mislead students that jaywalking is acceptable.

3 All parents and students are advised to abide by the traffic rules and utilise the overhead bridge and traffic light junctions located near the school. Road users who choose to flout traffic rules are liable to face the following penalties:

- a. Failing to cross at pedestrian crossing under rule 3(1) road traffic (pedestrian crossing) rules.
- b. Failing to use overhead bridge under rule 3(1) road traffic (pedestrian crossing) rules.
- c. Failing to conform to pedestrian signalised crossing under rule 3(1) road traffic (pedestrian crossing) rules.
